REFLECTION

*...faith, hope, love remain, these three;
but the greatest of these is love.*

We use the word love so freely. We love ice cream or we love a particular television show. We love to travel or to do yoga. We love our pets, our families, our friends. Maybe we even love God. What does that mean? In some languages other than English, there are multiple words for love, because love really differs in different contexts, but in English we “love”—just one word for many meanings. In Sunday’s reading from St. Paul, he presents a totally radical description of love, and it’s not easy. Read it very carefully. Reflect on it and relate it to your own life: your work; your relationships; your attitudes toward the disabled, the homeless, people of different faiths, refugees, people of different political parties, anyone who’s different from you. We learn that God is Love and we are commanded to love God with our whole being and others as ourselves. How hard is that when we include all those people we may not like! St. Paul offers us a guide to which to aspire. God assures us we will not be abandoned in the effort. Jesus reminds us we must be open to God’s love to receive it. Let’s give it a try!

REFLEXIÓN

*... quedan la fe, la esperanza, el amor, estos tres;
Pero el mayor de ellos es el amor.*

Usamos la palabra amor tan libremente. Amamos el helado o amamos un programa de televisión en particular. Nos encanta viajar o hacer yoga. Amamos a nuestras mascotas, nuestras familias, nuestros amigos. Tal vez incluso amamos a Dios. ¿Qué significa eso? En algunos idiomas además del inglés, hay varias palabras para el amor, porque el amor realmente difiere en diferentes contextos, pero en inglés “amamos”, es solo una palabra para muchos significados. En la lectura del domingo de San Pablo, presenta una descripción totalmente radical del amor, y no es fácil. Léelo con mucha atención. Reflexiona sobre ello y relaciónalo con tu propia vida: tu trabajo; tus relaciones; tus actitudes hacia los discapacitados, las personas sin hogar, las personas de diferentes religiones, los refugiados, las personas de diferentes partidos políticos, cualquiera que sea diferente a ti. Aprendemos que Dios es Amor y se nos ordena amar a Dios con todo nuestro ser y a los demás como a nosotros mismos. ¿Qué difícil es eso cuando incluimos a todas esas personas que tal vez no nos gusten! San Pablo nos ofrece una guía a la que aspirar. Dios nos asegura que no seremos abandonados en el esfuerzo. Jesús nos recuerda que debemos estar abiertos al amor de Dios para recibirlo. ¡Hagamos un intento!

LECTURAS PARA LA PROXIMA SEMANA

V Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario: Isaías 6:1-8; Salmo 138:1-5, 7-8; 1 Corintios 15:1-11; y Lucas 5:1-11.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 4

IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE 9AM MASS

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

Our Parish needs your help. We are looking for two people to help our Bereavement Ministry. The ministry involves meeting with families to arrange the funeral Mass (either at the wake, at their home or at the Parish House). Sometimes it may involve leading a wake service when a priest is not available. We do not have many funerals so the ministry is not demanding on your time.

PLEASE HELP

Let me know—Fr Greg

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

COURAGE
doesn't always ROAR.
Sometimes courage is that quiet voice at the end of the day saying,
"I will try again tomorrow."

For some of you this may be your first time while others join us once again. No matter, we are thrilled that you chose to celebrate with us!

For almost 50 years, Irish Night has raised crucial funds needed to care for our senior Sisters living at our Motherhouse in Amityville. These dedicated women religious have spent their lives being signs of joy and hope while serving the people of God. We are honored to care for them as they come home to live their next stage of life.

This year's celebration will take place virtually on Saturday, March 5, 2022. We are so happy to be joined once again by our program Emcee, CBS news anchor, Dick Brennan. Dick will guide us through the event which will feature traditional songs, dance, and plenty of Irish spirit!
